22 securities contract, repurchase agreement, commodity contract, 23 forward contract or master netting agreement, as those terms are 24 defined in the federal Bankruptcy Code, to the extent that a court

1 would not have the power to stay the exercise if the owner were a 2 debtor under the Bankruptcy Code.

3 E. The court may void an act that violates a stay or injunction 4 under this section.

5 F. If a person knowingly violates a stay or injunction under 6 this section, the court may:

7 1. Award actual damages caused by the violation, reasonable 8 attorney fees, and costs; and 9 2. Sanction the violation as civil contempt.

10 SECTION 15. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
11 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 870.15 of Title 12, unless there
12 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

13 A. With court approval, a receiver may engage an attorney, 14 accountant, appraiser, auctioneer, broker, or other professional to 15 assist the receiver in performing a duty or exercising a power of 16 the receiver. The receiver shall disclose to the court:

17 1. The identity and qualifications of the professional;

18 2. The scope and nature of the proposed engagement;

19 3. Any potential conflict of interest; and 20 4. The proposed compensation.

21 B. A person shall not be disqualified from engagement under 22 this section solely because of the person's engagement by, 23 representation of, or other relationship with the receiver, a 24 creditor, or a party. This act shall not prevent the receiver from

1 serving in the receivership as an attorney, accountant, auctioneer, 2 or broker when authorized by law.

3 C. A receiver or professional engaged under subsection A of 4 this section shall file with the court an itemized statement of the 5 time spent, work performed, and billing rate of each person that 6 performed the work and an itemized list of expenses. The receiver 7 shall pay the amount approved by the court.

8 SECTION 16. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
9 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 870.16 of Title 12, unless there
10 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

11 A. In this section, "good faith" means honesty in fact and the 12 observance of reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing.

13 B. With court approval, a receiver may use receivership 14 property other than in the ordinary course of business.

15 C. With court approval, a receiver may transfer receivership 16 property other than in the ordinary course of business by sale, 17 lease, license, exchange, or other disposition. Unless the 18 agreement of sale provides otherwise, a sale under this section 19 shall be free and clear of a lien of the person that obtained 20 appointment of the receiver, any subordinate lien, and any right of 21 redemption but shall be subject to a senior lien.

22 D. A lien on receivership property which is extinguished by a 23 transfer under subsection C of this section attaches to the proceeds 24 of the transfer with the same validity, perfection, and priority the

1 lien had on the property immediately before the transfer, even if 2 the proceeds are not sufficient to satisfy all obligations secured 3 by the lien.

4 E. A transfer under subsection C of this section may occur by 5 means other than a public auction sale. A creditor holding a valid 6 lien on the property to be transferred may purchase the property and 7 offset against the purchase price part or all of the allowed amount 8 secured by the lien, if the creditor tenders funds sufficient to 9 satisfy in full the reasonable expenses of transfer and the 10 obligation secured by any senior lien extinguished by the transfer.

11 F. A reversal or modification of an order approving a transfer 12 under subsection C of this section shall not affect the validity of 13 the transfer to a person that acquired the property in good faith or 14 revive against the person any lien extinguished by the transfer, 15 whether the person knew before the transfer of the request for 16 reversal or modification, unless the court stayed the order before 17 the transfer.

18 SECTION 17. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
19 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 870.17 of Title 12, unless there
20 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

21 A. In this section, "timeshare interest" means an interest 22 having a duration of more than three (3) years which grants its 23 holder the right to use and occupy an accommodation, facility, or 24

1 recreational site, whether improved or not, for a specific period 2 less than a full year during any given year.

3 B. Except as otherwise provided in subsection H of this 4 section, with court approval, a receiver may adopt or reject an 5 executory contract of the owner relating to receivership property.
6 The court may condition the receiver's adoption and continued 7 performance of the contract on terms appropriate under the 8 circumstances. If the receiver does not request court approval to 9 adopt or reject the contract within a reasonable time after the 10 receiver's appointment, the receiver shall be deemed to have 11 rejected the contract.

12 C. A receiver's performance of an executory contract before 13 court approval under subsection B of this section of its adoption or 14 rejection shall not be an adoption of the contract and shall not 15 preclude the receiver from seeking approval to reject the contract.

16 D. A provision in an executory contract which requires or 17 permits a forfeiture, modification, or termination of the contract 18 because of the appointment of a receiver or the financial condition
19 of the owner shall not affect a receiver's power under subsection B 20 of this section to adopt the contract.

21 E. A receiver's right to possess or use receivership property 22 pursuant to an executory contract terminates on rejection of the 23 contract under subsection B of this section. Rejection shall be a 24 breach of the contract, effective immediately, before appointment of

1 the receiver. A claim for damages for rejection of the contract 2 shall be submitted by the later of:

3 1. The time set for submitting a claim in the receivership; or 4 2. Thirty (30) days after the court approves the rejection.

5 F. If at the time a receiver is appointed, the owner has the 6 right to assign an executory contract relating to receivership 7 property under other laws of this state, the receiver may assign the 8 contract with court approval.

9 G. If a receiver rejects under subsection B of this section an 10 executory contract for the sale of receivership property that is 11 real property in possession of the purchaser or a real-property 12 timeshare interest, the purchaser may:

13 1. Treat the rejection as a termination of the contract, and in 14 that case the purchaser has a lien on the property for the recovery 15 of any part of the purchase price the purchaser paid; or 16 2. Retain the purchaser's right to possession under the 17 contract, and in that case the purchaser shall continue to perform 18 all obligations arising under the contract and may offset any 19 damages caused by nonperformance of an obligation of the owner after 20 the date of the rejection, but the purchaser has no right or claim 21 against other receivership property or the receiver on account of 22 the damages.

23 H. A receiver may not reject an unexpired lease of real 24 property under which the owner is the landlord if:

1 1. The tenant occupies the leased premises as the tenant's 2 primary residence;

3 2. The receiver was appointed at the request of a person other 4 than a mortgagee; or

5 3. The receiver was appointed at the request of a mortgagee 6 and:

7 a. the lease is superior to the lien of the mortgage,

8 b. the tenant has an enforceable agreement with the 9 mortgagee or the holder of a senior lien under which 10 the tenant's occupancy will not be disturbed as long 11 as the tenant performs its obligations under the 12 lease,

13 c. the mortgagee has consented to the lease, either in a 14 signed record or by its failure timely to object that 15 the lease violated the mortgage, or

16 d. the terms of the lease were commercially reasonable at 17 the time the lease was agreed to and the tenant did 18 not know or have reason to know that the lease 19 violated the mortgage.

20 SECTION 18. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
21 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 870.18 of Title 12, unless there
22 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

1 A. A receiver shall be entitled to all defenses and immunities 2 provided by law for an act or omission within the scope of the 3 receiver's appointment.

4 B. A receiver may be sued personally for an act or omission in 5 administering receivership property only with approval of the court 6 that appointed the receiver.

7 SECTION 19. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
8 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 870.19 of Title 12, unless there
9 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

10 A receiver may file or, if ordered by the court, shall file an 11 interim report that includes:

12 1. The activities of the receiver since appointment or a 13 previous report;

14 2. Receipts and disbursements, including a payment made or 15 proposed to be made to a professional engaged by the receiver;

16 3. Receipts and dispositions of receivership property;

17 4. Fees and expenses of the receiver and, if not filed 18 separately, a request for approval of payment of the fees and 19 expenses; and

20 5. Any other information required by the court.

21 SECTION 20. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
22 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 870.20 of Title 12, unless there
23 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

1 A. Except as otherwise provided in subsection F of this 2 section, a receiver shall give notice of appointment of the receiver 3 to creditors of the owner by:

4 1. Deposit for delivery through first-class mail or other 5 commercially reasonable delivery method to the last-known address of 6 each creditor; and 7 2. Publication as directed by the court.

8 B. Except as otherwise provided in subsection F of this 9 section, the notice required by subsection A of this section shall 10 specify the date by which each creditor holding a claim against the 11 owner which arose before appointment of the receiver must submit the 12 claim to the receiver. The date specified shall be at least ninety 13 (90) days after the letter of notice under paragraph 1 of subsection 14 A of this section or last publication under paragraph 2 of 15 subsection A of this section. The court may extend the period for 16 submitting the claim. Unless the court orders otherwise, a claim 17 that is not submitted timely shall not be entitled to a distribution 18 from the receivership.

19 C. A claim submitted by a creditor under this section shall:

20 1. State the name and address of the creditor;

21 2. State the amount and basis of the claim;

22 3. Identify any property securing the claim;

23 4. Be signed by the creditor under penalty of perjury; and 24 5. Include a copy of any record on which the claim is based.

1 D. An assignment by a creditor of a claim against the owner
2 shall be effective against the receiver only if the assignee gives 3 timely notice of the assignment to the receiver in a signed record.

4 E. At any time before entry of an order approving a receiver's 5 final report, the receiver may file with the court an objection to a 6 claim of a creditor, stating the basis for the objection. The court 7 shall allow or disallow the claim according to the laws of this 8 state.

9 F. If the court concludes that receivership property is likely 10 to be insufficient to satisfy claims of each creditor holding a 11 perfected lien on the property, the court may order that:

12 1. The receiver need not give notice under subsection A of this 13 section of the appointment to all creditors of the owner, but only 14 such creditors as the court directs; and 15 2. Unsecured creditors need not submit claims under this 16 section.

17 G. Subject to Section 21 of this act:

18 1. A distribution of receivership property to a creditor 19 holding a perfected lien on the property shall be made in accordance 20 with the creditor's priority under the laws of this state; and 21 2. A distribution of receivership property to a creditor with 22 an allowed unsecured claim shall be made as the court directs 23 according to the laws of this state.

24

SECTION 21. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 870.21 of Title 12, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

B. The court may order one or more of the following to pay the reasonable and necessary fees and expenses of the receivership, including reasonable attorney fees and costs:

1. A person that requested the appointment of the receiver, if the receivership does not produce sufficient funds to pay the fees and expenses; or

2. A person whose conduct justified or would have justified the appointment of the receiver under paragraph 1 of subsection A of Section 6 of this act.

1 receivership property and has filed a report of all receipts and 2 disbursements during the service of the replaced receiver, the 3 replaced receiver shall be discharged.

4 D. The court may discharge a receiver and terminate the court's 5 administration of the receivership property if the court finds that 6 appointment of the receiver was improvident or that the 7 circumstances no longer warrant continuation of the receivership.
8 If the court finds that the appointment was sought wrongfully or in 9 bad faith, the court may assess against the person that sought the 10 appointment:

11 1. The fees and expenses of the receivership, including 12 reasonable attorney fees and costs; and 13 2. Actual damages caused by the appointment, including 14 reasonable attorney fees and costs.

7 payment of fees and expenses of the receiver; and

8 7. Any other information required by the court.

9 B. If the court approves a final report filed under subsection
10 A of this section and the receiver distributes all receivership 11 property, the receiver shall be discharged.

12 SECTION 24. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
13 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 870.24 of Title 12, unless there 23 the other state.

24

1 B. The court may issue an order that gives effect to an order 2 entered in another state appointing or directing a receiver.

7 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 870.25 of Title 12, unless there
8 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

11 receivership property or proceeds to the secured obligation shall 12 not:

13 1. Make the secured party a mortgagee in possession of real 14 property;

15 2. Impose any duty on the secured party under Section 1-9-207
16 of Title 12A of the Oklahoma Statutes;

17 3. Make the secured party an agent of the owner;

18 4. Constitute an election of remedies that precludes a later 19 action to enforce the secured obligation;

21 6. Limit any right available to the secured party with respect 22 to the secured obligation; or 23
