SUBJECT: Crimes and punishments

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 21 O.S. 2021, Section 425, as amended by Section 370, Chapter 486, O.S.L. 2025 (21 O.S. Supp. 2025, Section 425), is amended to read as follows:

Section 425. A. Any person who engages in a pattern of criminal offenses ~~in~~:

1. In two or more counties in this state;
2. In two or more municipalities in this state;
3. In an unincorporated portion of a county and in a municipality within the same county;
4. When one of the offenses was committed outside this state and the other was committed within this state;
5. In circumstances when the initial act was committed online through cyberspace, by a computer application, social media, artificial intelligence, or by a cellular network, regardless of location, and an additional act was committed inside this state; or ~~who~~
6. Who attempts or conspires with others to engage in a pattern of criminal offenses, shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a Class D1 felony offense punishable by imprisonment as provided for in subsections B through F of Section 20N of this title, or by a fine in an amount not more than Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00), or by both such fine and imprisonment. Such punishment shall be in addition to any penalty imposed for any offense involved in the pattern of criminal offenses. Double jeopardy shall attach upon conviction.

B. For purposes of this ~~act~~ section, "pattern of criminal offenses" means:

1. Two or more criminal offenses are committed that are part of the same plan, scheme, or adventure; or
2. A sequence of two or more of the same criminal offenses are committed and are not separated by an interval of more than thirty (30) days between the first and second offense, the second and third, and so on; or
3. Two or more criminal offenses are committed, each proceeding from or having as an antecedent element a single prior incident or pattern of fraud, robbery, burglary, theft, identity theft, receipt of stolen property, false personation, false pretenses, obtaining property by trick or deception, taking a credit or debit card without consent, organized retail theft, or the making, transferring or receiving of a false or fraudulent identification card.

C. Jurisdiction and venue for a pattern of criminal offenses occurring in multiple counties in this state shall be determined as provided in Section ~~4~~ 125.1 of ~~this act~~ Title 22 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

SECTION 2. AMENDATORY 21 O.S. 2021, Section 843.4, as amended by Section 194, Chapter 486, O.S.L. 2025 (21 O.S. Supp. 2025, Section 843.4), is amended to read as follows:

Section 843.4. A. As used in this section, "exploitation of an elderly person or disabled adult" means:

1. Knowingly, by deception or intimidation, obtaining or using, or endeavoring to obtain or use, an elderly person's or disabled adult's funds, assets, or property with the intent to temporarily or permanently deprive the elderly person or disabled adult of the use, benefit, or possession of the funds, assets, or property, or to benefit someone other than the elderly person or disabled adult, by a person who:

- a. stands in a position of trust and confidence with the elderly person or disabled adult, or
- b. has a business relationship with the elderly person or disabled adult~~7;~~ or

2. Obtaining or using, endeavoring to obtain or use, or conspiring with another to obtain or use an elderly person's or disabled adult's funds, assets, or property with the intent to temporarily or permanently deprive the elderly person or disabled adult of the use, benefit, or possession of the funds, assets, or property, or to benefit someone other than the elderly person or disabled adult, by a person who knows or reasonably should know that the elderly person or disabled adult lacks the capacity to consent.

B. 1. If the funds, assets, or property involved in the exploitation of the elderly person or disabled adult are valued at One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) or more, the violator commits a Class C1 felony offense punishable by imprisonment as provided for in subsections B through E of Section 20L of this title, and by a fine in an amount not exceeding Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00).

2. If the funds, assets, or property involved in the exploitation of the elderly person or disabled adult are valued at less than One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00), the violator commits a Class C2 felony offense punishable by imprisonment as provided for in subsections B through F of Section 20M of this title and by a fine in an amount not exceeding Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00).

C. It shall be unlawful for a person to use coercion, deception, enticement, intimidation, bartering, recruiting, or other means to exploit another who has a mental illness, is vulnerable, homeless, intellectually or developmentally disabled, elderly, a user of drugs or alcohol, a minor, or whose legal status in this country may be unlawful, to engage in any crime. Any person convicted of violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the custody of the Department of Corrections for a term not exceeding ten (10) years, or by a fine not exceeding Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), or by both such fine and imprisonment.

D. It shall be unlawful for a person to engage in a pattern of exploitation by coercion, deception, enticement, intimidation, bartering, recruiting, or other means, of another who has a mental illness, is vulnerable, homeless, intellectually or developmentally disabled, elderly, a user of drugs or alcohol, a minor, or whose legal status in this country may be unlawful, to engage in any crime.

1. A pattern of exploitation shall be established if:

- a. a person has a previous conviction under any of the provisions of this section,
- b. a person has a previous conviction for contributing to the delinquency of a minor pursuant to Section 856 of this title,
- c. a person has a previous conviction for abuse, neglect, exploitation, or sexual abuse of a child pursuant to Section 843.5 of this title, or

- d. a person participated in circumstances in which the exploited person committed criminal acts in violation of Section 425 of this title.

2. Any person who violates the provisions of this subsection shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the custody of the Department of Corrections for a term not exceeding twenty (20) years, or by a fine not exceeding Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00), or by both such fine and imprisonment.

2. Upon a second conviction, or if the person has in his or her possession the personal identifying information of a minor or elderly person, the person shall be guilty of a Class D1 felony offense punishable by imprisonment as provided for in subsections B through F of Section 20N of this title, or a fine not to exceed One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00), or by both such fine and imprisonment. ~~Any person who violates the provisions of subsection C of this section shall, upon; and~~

3. Upon a third or subsequent conviction, the person shall be guilty of a ~~misdemeanor~~ felony punishable by imprisonment in the county jail custody of the Department of Corrections for a term of not to exceed one (1) year, or a fine not to exceed One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00), or by both such fine and imprisonment less than ten (10) years nor more than fifteen (15) years.

Restitution to the victim may be ordered in addition to any criminal penalty imposed by the court. The victim of identity theft may bring a civil action for damages against any person participating in furthering the crime or attempted crime of identity theft.

I. Any person in possession of the personal identifying information of five or more victims shall be deemed to have committed aggravated identity theft. Any person convicted of aggravated identity theft shall be guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the custody of the Department of Corrections for a term of not less than ten (10) years nor more than fifteen (15) years.

J. Law enforcement agencies may employ, either directly or through memorandums of understanding or cross-deputization agreements, persons to serve as identity theft task force officers whose primary responsibility shall be to prevent, respond to, and investigate criminal violations related to identity theft.

K. Law enforcement officers may disseminate copies of Oklahoma driver licenses, identification cards, or other state-issued photographs of suspects or victims to fraud investigators or similarly acting employees at banks, credit unions, loan businesses, mortgage companies, any other financial institutions, issuers of credit cards, or others who are assisting with a fraud investigation related to a violation provided for in this section.

L. For purposes of this section:

1. "Elderly person" means any individual sixty-two (62) years of age or older;

2. "Minor" means any individual under twenty-one (21) years of age; and

3. "Synthetic identity" means:

- a. the combination of stolen, lost, or misrepresented information, or other unique or personal identifying information, with other authentic or invented information such as false names, false dates of birth, or false addresses, or
- b. fabricated information used to represent a person, business, or company but whose identity cannot be reasonably confirmed.
