

1 the Governor or the Pardon and Parole Board as to whether the parole
2 will be revoked. Parole time shall cease to run after the issuance
3 of a warrant for arrest by the Department of Corrections, and earned 4 credits shall not be accrued during any period of time when the 5 parolee is incarcerated pending revocation action by the Governor or 6 the Pardon and Parole Board. Pursuant to the provisions of this 7 subsection:

8 1. The Governor shall have the power and authority to revoke
9 parole granted by the Governor and file the certificate of 10 revocation with the Secretary of State; and 11 2. The Pardon and Parole Board, by majority vote, shall have 12 the power and authority to revoke parole granted by the Pardon and 13 Parole Board and file the certificate of revocation with the 14 Secretary of State.

15 B. Any parolee determined to have violated any terms or 16 conditions of parole by the supervising parole officer may be given 17 the option, at the discretion of the Department of Corrections, to 18 be placed in an intermediate sanctions facility for disciplinary 19 sanction and programmatic services in lieu of revocation or when 20 revocation action by the Governor or the Pardon and Parole Board is 21 deemed unnecessary for the nature of the violation. Any parolee for 22 whom a warrant for arrest issues as provided in subsection A of this 23 section may, at the discretion of the Department or the Governor, be 24 placed in an intermediate sanctions facility pending or following

1 any action by the Governor or the Pardon and Parole Board as to 2 revocation of parole or required additional conditions to remain on 3 parole. A parolee may be received and processed into the custody of 4 the Department on an expedited basis through any facility serving 5 such purpose or may be processed directly by the intermediate 6 sanctions facility.

7 SECTION 2. This act shall become effective November 1, 2025.
