BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 11-103.6q of Title 70, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. Prior to the beginning of the 2027-2028 school year, the State Department of Education shall develop and make available to public high schools in this state a curriculum for students in ninth

1 through twelfth grades to address awareness and prevention of
2 domestic violence and human trafficking. The curriculum shall:

3 1. Teach students how to recognize, prevent, and seek help for 4 domestic violence and human trafficking;

5 2. Teach students the warning signs of dating violence and
6 abusive behavior including both physical and emotional abuse;

7 3. Promote safe and healthy relationships and student well-
8 being including healthy relationship communication skills; and

9 4. Be medically accurate and appropriate for the age of the 10 students.

11 B. The curriculum required by subsection A of this section may 12 be taught as a stand-alone unit of instruction or may be integrated 13 into one or more existing courses of study.

14 C. The State Department of Education shall post the curriculum
15 on its website and shall identify resources that school districts
16 can use to implement the provisions of this section.

17 D. School districts in this state may begin teaching the 18 concepts provided for in subsection A of this section during the 19 2027-2028 school year.

20 E. A school district that teaches the concepts provided for in 21 subsection A of this section shall provide an option for the parent
22 or legal guardian of a student to opt the student out of the 23 curriculum provided for in this section.

24 SECTION 2. This act shall become effective July 1, 2026.

SECTION 3. It being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, an emergency is hereby declared to exist, by reason whereof this act shall take effect and be in full force from and after its passage and approval.
